

most treasured destinations. Here, you will visit the distinguished Villa Romana del Casale, a 4th-century AD hunting lodge renowned worldwide for its extraordinary collection of Roman mosaics. These vibrant, remarkably preserved artworks offer an insight into ancient life, depicting scenes of mythology, sport, nature, and daily activities with astonishing detail. After exploring the Villa, the journey continues to Enna, a historic hilltop town perched at the very heart of Sicily. Revered as the "Belvedere of Sicily" for its breathtaking panoramic views, Enna is a true medieval jewel. Its winding cobblestone streets, commanding towers, and charming stone houses create an atmosphere rich with old-world allure and timeless beauty. You will then return back to the hotel by coach.

Day 6 – Free day in resort.

Day 7 – Noto & Marzamemi - After breakfast you will depart by coach. You will stroll through the sun-drenched Baroque streets of Noto, a city famed for its honey-colored stone architecture and elegant, sculpted facades. Majestic cathedrals, ornate palaces, and sweeping piazzas create a timeless atmosphere that invites leisurely exploration. Your journey then continues to Marzamemi, a picturesque seaside fishing village where colorful boats sway gently in the harbor and historic tuna warehouses recall centuries of maritime tradition. Here, you will savor authentic Sicilian cuisine, enjoy a delightful local wine tasting, and take in the tranquil beauty of the Mediterranean's shimmering coastline. Returning back to the hotel by coach at the end of the day.

Day 8 – Free time until your transfer to the airport and your return flight home.

As always, the above is just a suggestion and can be amended if you feel that it does not suit your requirements.

Please let me know if you feel that the above is of interest, or if you require any further information.

Kind regards,
Hayley Sumner